

I am a subscriber to satellite radio. I have found the recent addition of local traffic and weather to be of substantial benefit. XM and Sirius radio are great advances over local stations full of commercials and schlock jocks. Please don't interfere and restrict the content.

Thank you, Michael White